

B1 is a catalyst for dialogue, learning and healing to create a safe region for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities.

A Space for Grace

Where faith and sexuality intersect

- Where: Westminster Presbyterian Church
47 Jefferson Ave SE Grand Rapids (click for map)
- When: Thursday, October 15, 2009 from 7-9 PM (Registration and coffee begins at 6:30; program begins at 7:00)
- What: A dialogue between LGBTQ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning) and straight folks, in the context of our rich and varied faith experiences and our spiritual lives. This is an introductory session leading to opportunities for continued dialogue.
- How: Listen thoughtfully to one another sharing about our beliefs and feelings. We will begin to build skills to communicate across identities, build relationships, and become more welcoming in our lives and communities.
- Details: Enter the church only at the southeast entrance off the parking lot on Jefferson Ave. Park just adjacent to this entrance. Doors open at 6:30 PM.
- Register: Please email us at walt.marston@att.net to register or with questions.
- Dialogue Convener: B1: Catalyst for Inclusion (b1catalyst.org)
- Co-Sponsors:
- Westminster Presbyterian LGBT Family & Friends (westminstergr.com)
 - Emergent West Michigan (emergentwestmichigan.blogspot.com)

How can we safely engage the challenging conversations?
